NOTE TO SUPPORTERS

Our commitment is to reach the largest possible audience across many communication platforms. The majority of monies are directly reinvested into maximizing the reach of these teachings as well as creating new content. The goal is to fulfill our role in the Great Commission. Your generosity plays a vital role in helping Angels in the Glen spread these important prophetic teachings around the world. We believe that God is using people like you to enable us to accomplish much more than we ever could from our own resources. Angels in the Glen is committed to full accountability, transparency, and financial stewardship with every dollar received.
